Questionnaire on Cyber-Bullying Against Active Women in Social Media

Issued by

Al Hayat Center - RASED

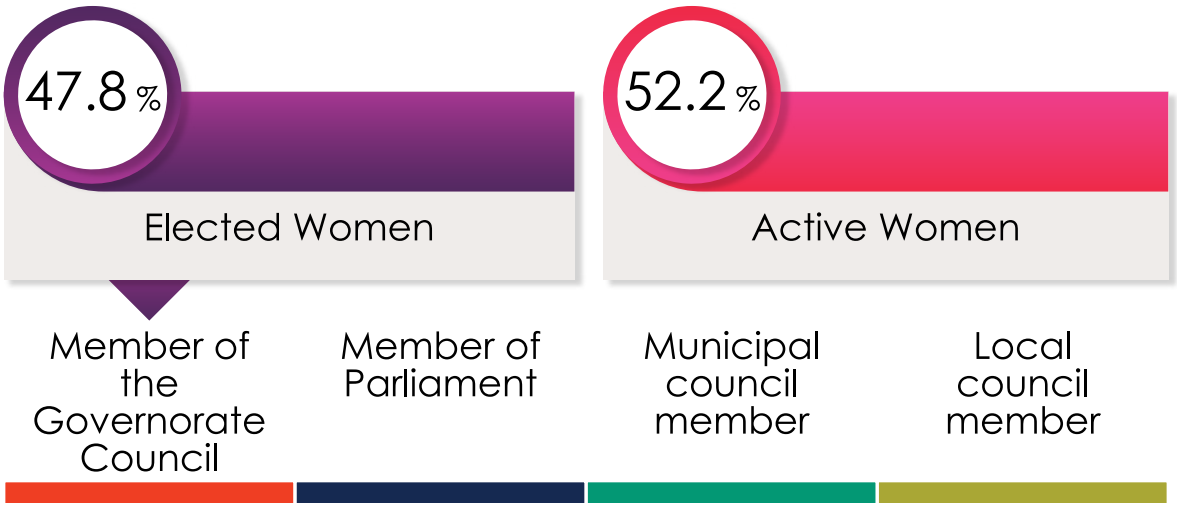
March 2020

Canada

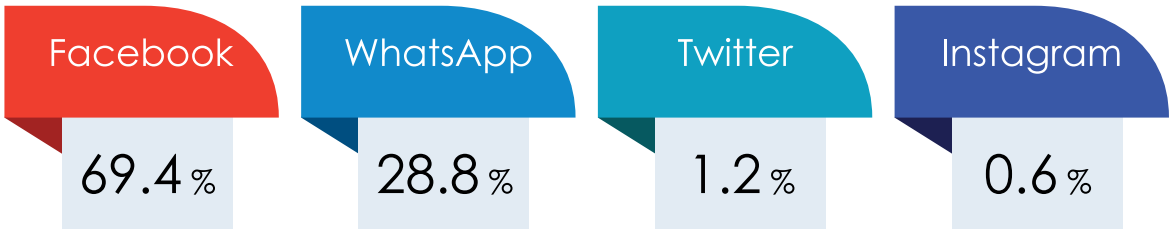
RASED راصد

مركز الحياة AL HAYAT CENTER

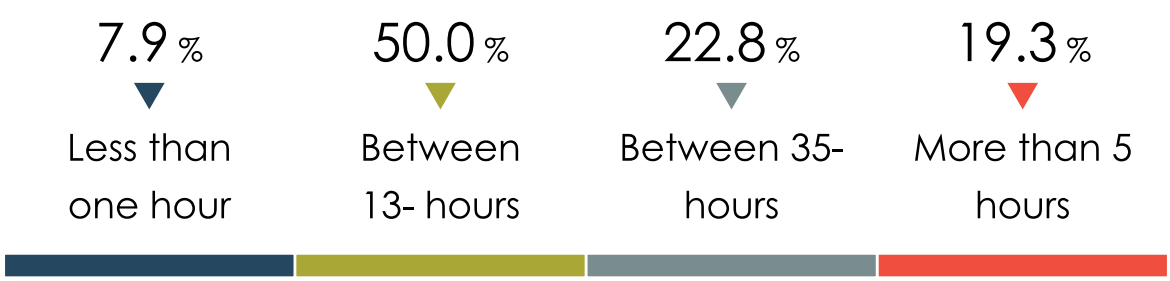
Current Position



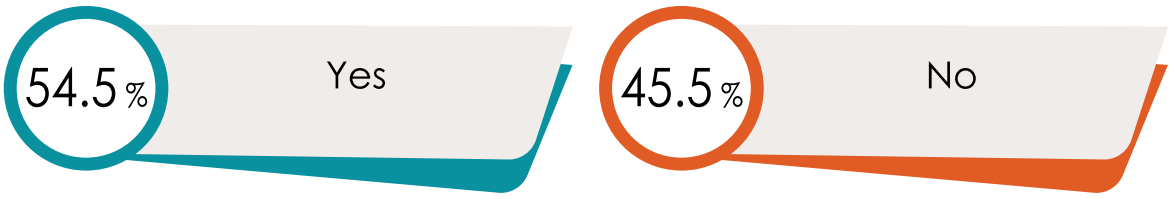
Which of the following sites do you use for your electronic communication with others?



How often do you use social media (daily)?



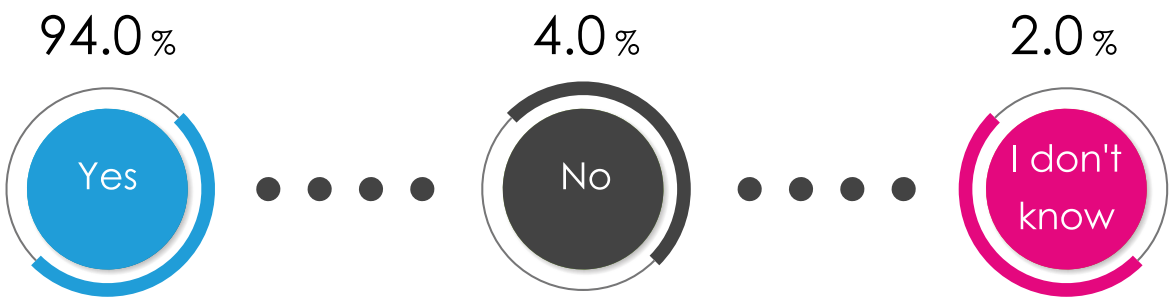
Do you accept a friend or follow request from people you do not know personally?



Using the privacy feature for posts, do you allow other than friends to comment on your posts - Facebook?

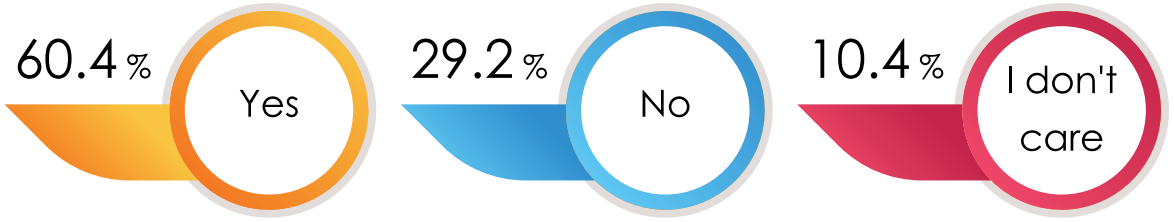
Have you heard of the concept of "cyber-bullying" before, which refers to using the Internet and relevant technology to harm others deliberately, repeatedly, and aggressively through comments, responses, or online posting?

Do you think there is poor awareness when it comes to the issue of cyber-bullying?

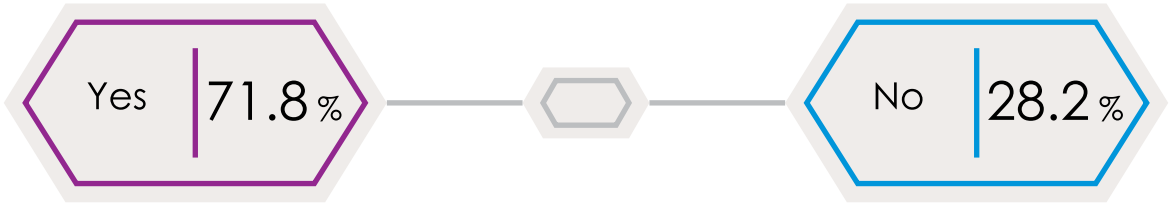


Do you think there should be a document of ethics governing the usage of social media?

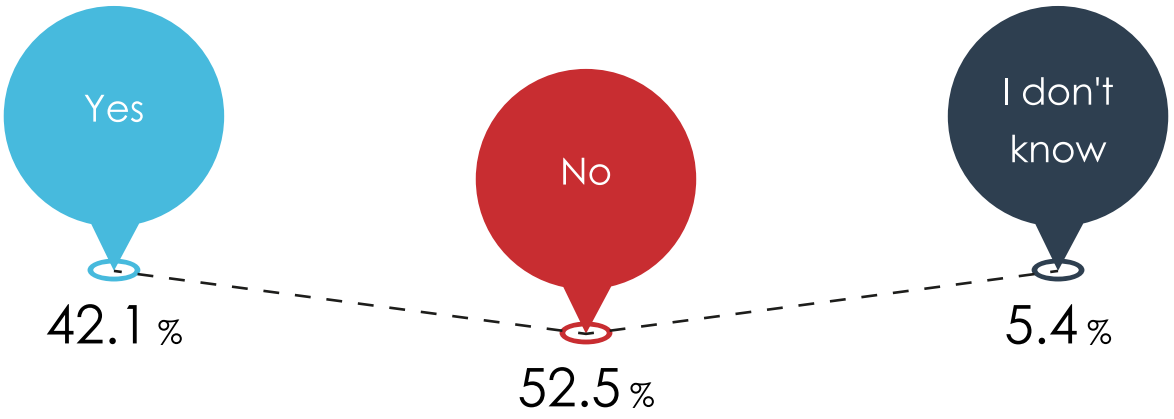
Do you feel hurt by cyber-bullying?



Do you feel that the gender of the social media user influences cyber-bullying?



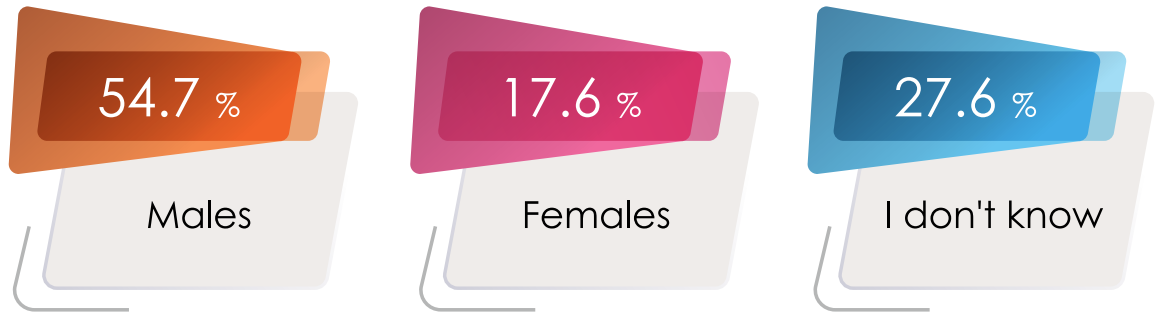
Have you suffered from cyber-bullying while using social media?



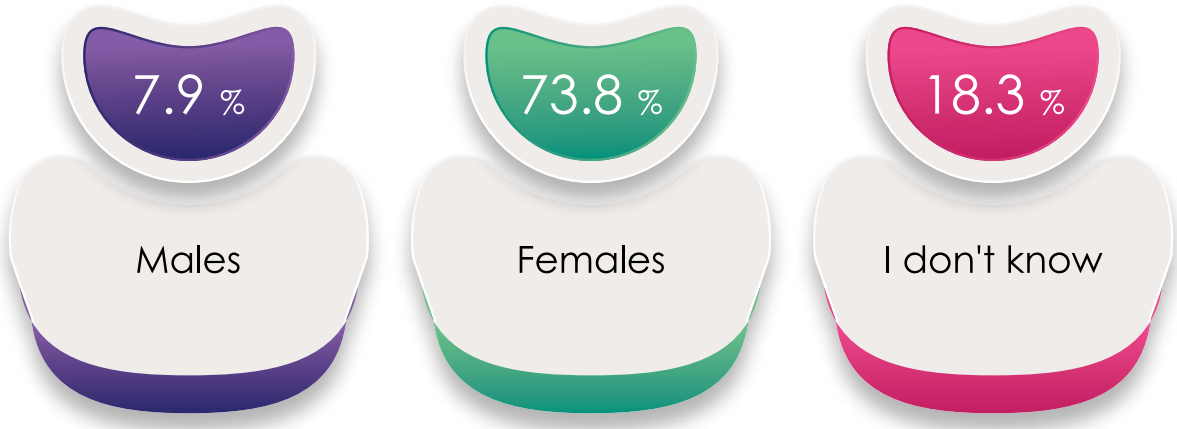
If you answered 'Yes', what were the issues for which you suffered the cyber-bullying?

Posting on political issues (example: my opinion related to public policy, specific decisions, policy of a certain institution, etc.)	18.5 %
Posting on social issues (example: my opinion related to social phenomenon, criticism of certain traditions, etc.)	34.6 %
Posting on entertainment issues (example: sharing my entertainment posts, jokes, etc.)	4.9 %
Posting on economic issues (example: sharing economic assessment reports, opinion on economic issue management, raising salaries, price inflation, etc.)	4.9 %
Posting on sports issues (example: supporting a specific club or certain sports phenomenon, etc.)	1.2 %
Personal (example: posts related to my family, social relations, etc.)	11.1 %
Criticism of a person (example: sharing posts that are critical of persons)	12.3 %
Other	12.5 %

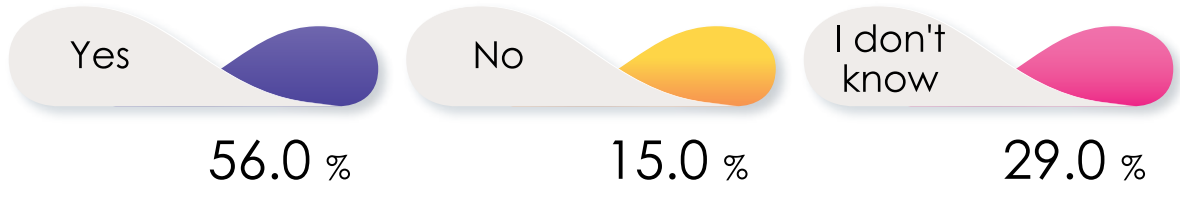
Who do you think does cyber-bullying more?



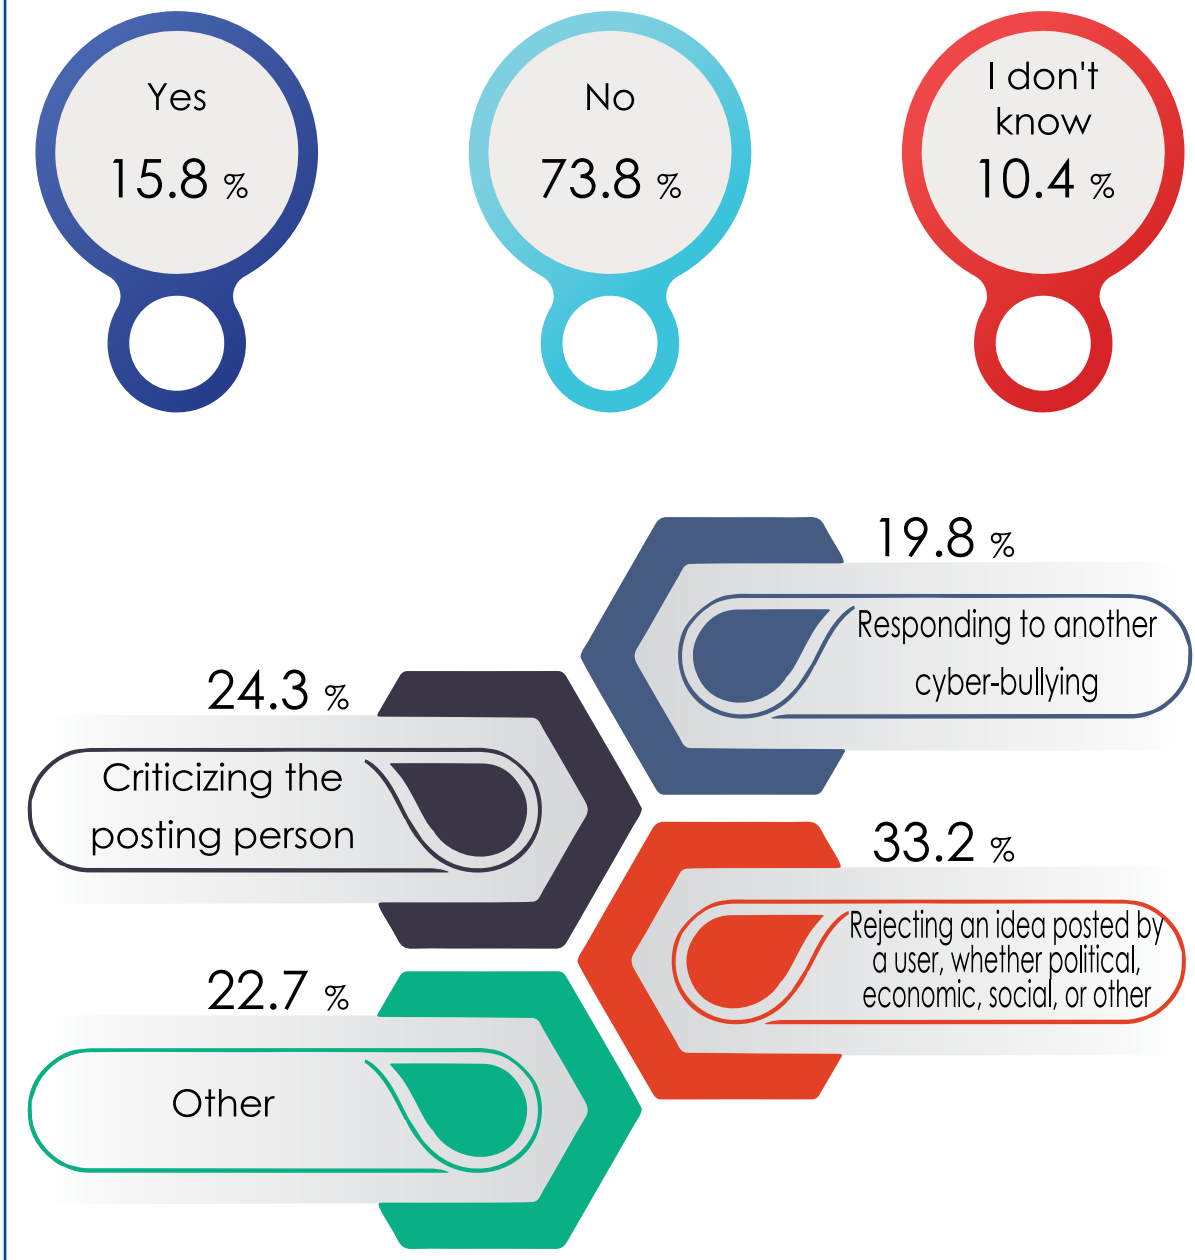
Who do you think suffers from cyber-bullying more?



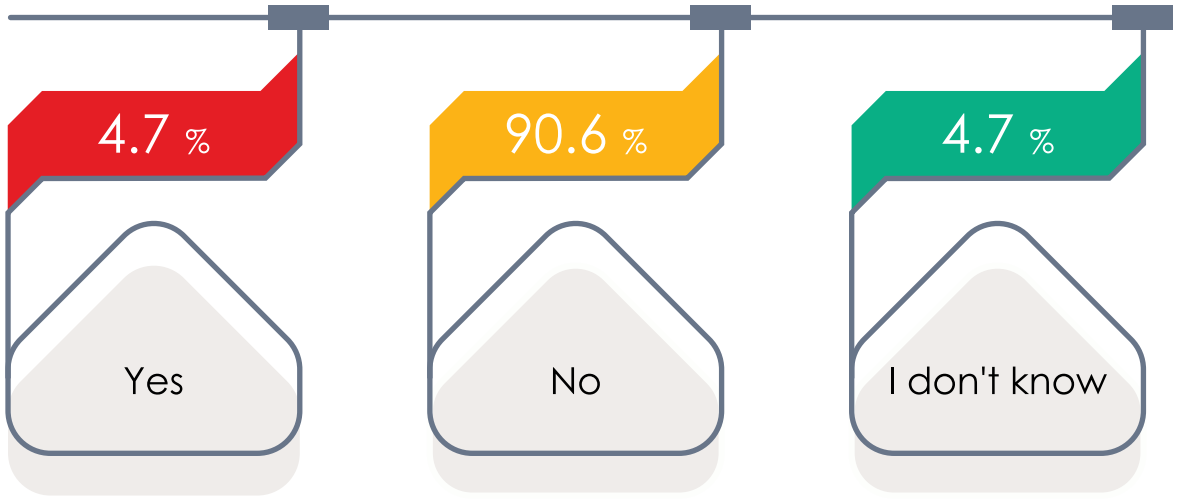
Has any of your friends faced cyber-bullying?



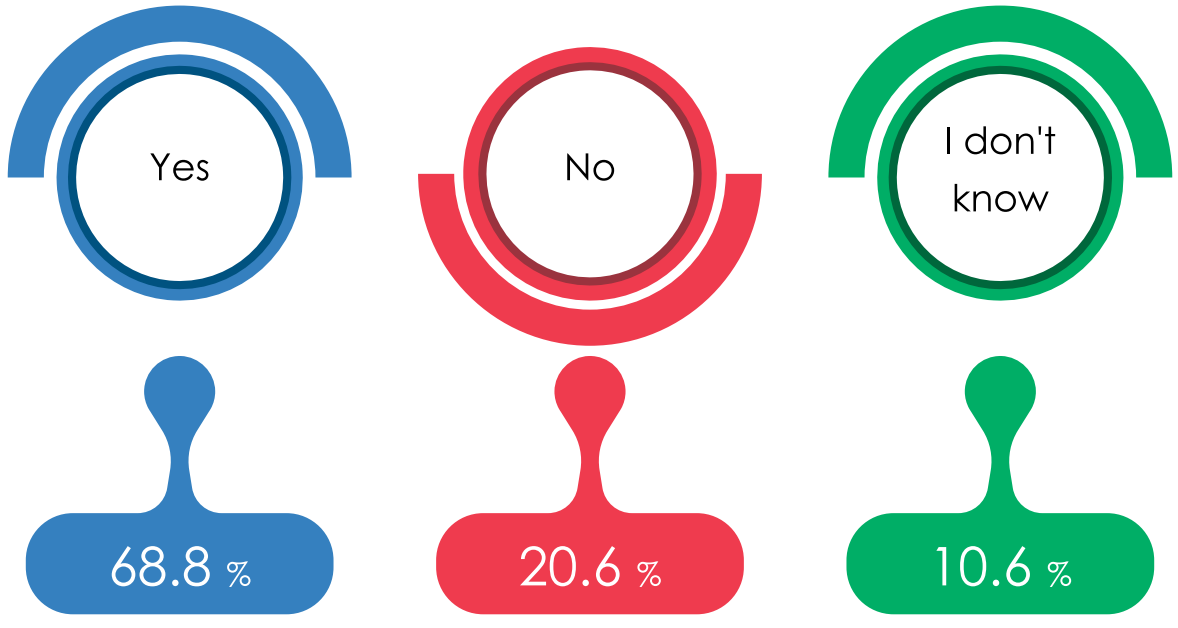
Do you think you committed cyber-bullying for any reason?



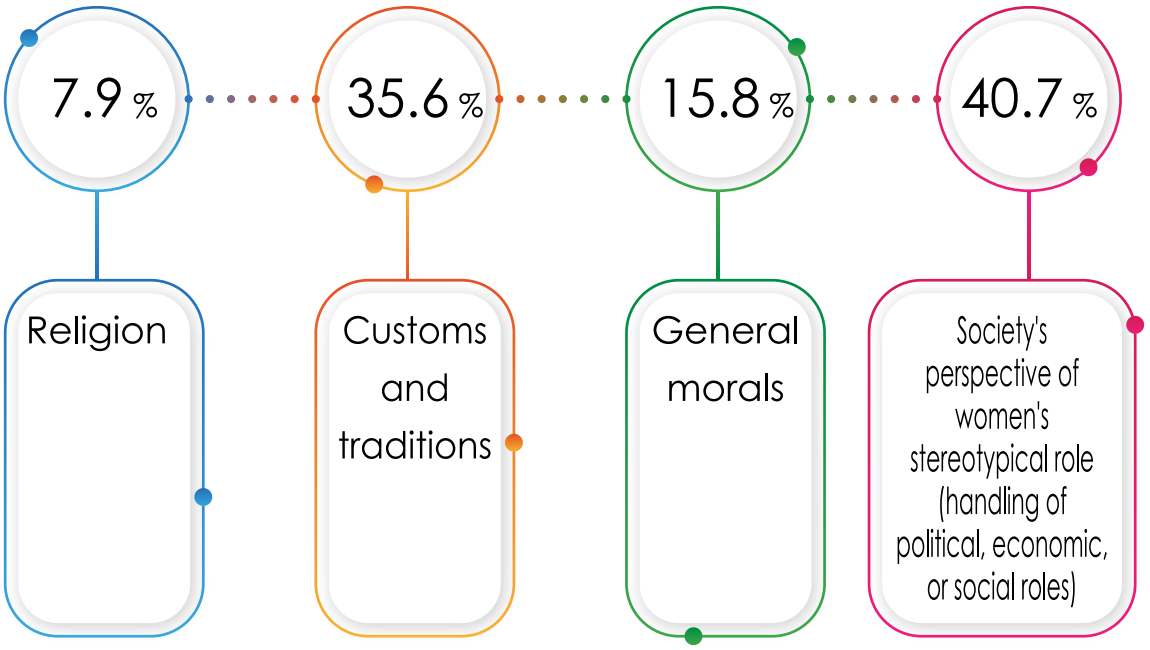
Do you think cyber-bullying is an effective self-expression tool?



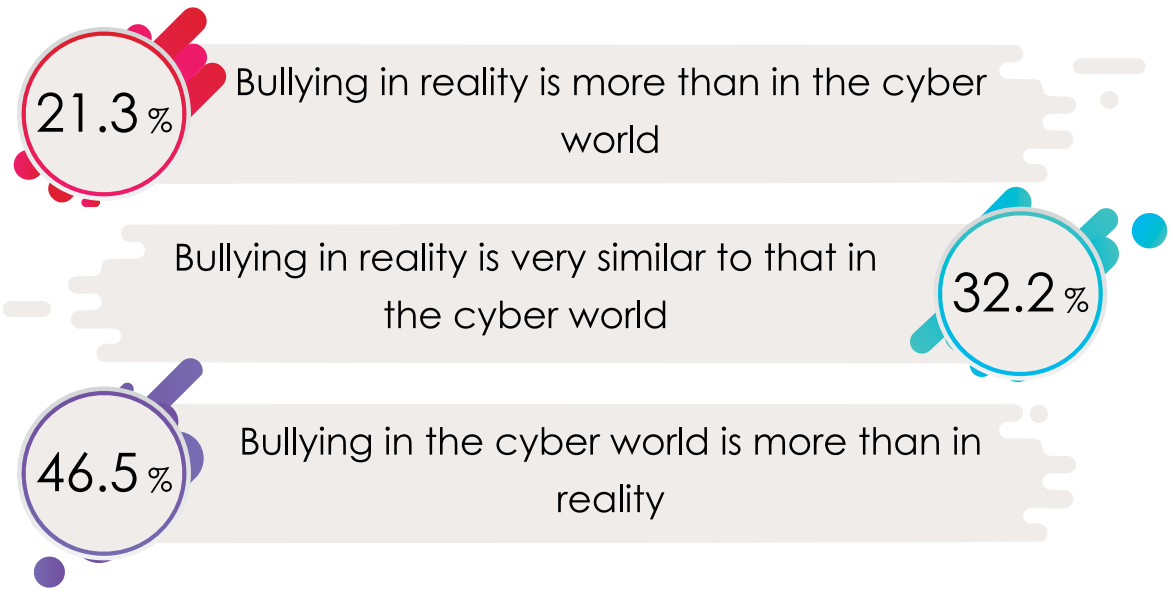
Do you think there are situations that justify actions for men but when women do the same thing, they are criticized?



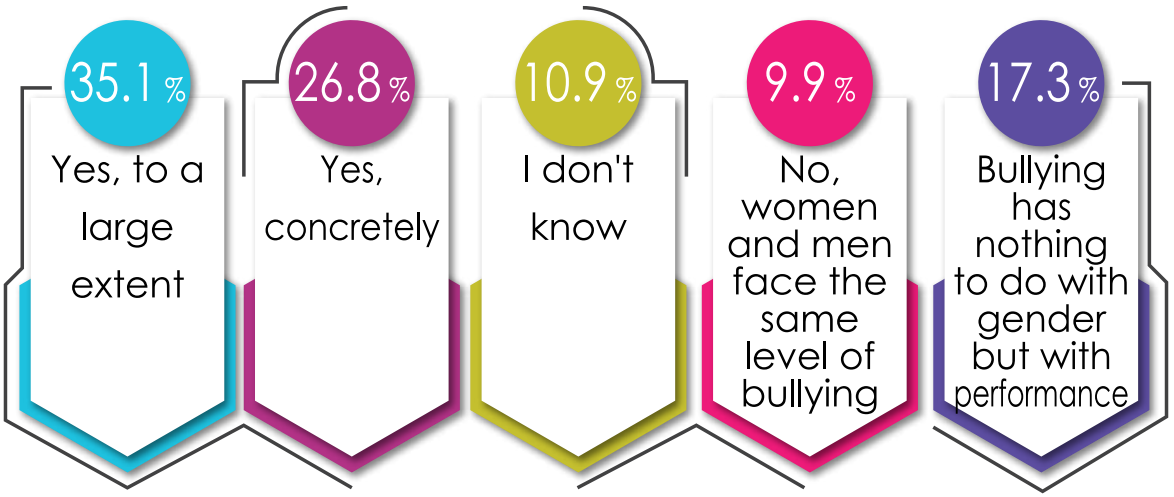
In your opinion, what is the prevalent approach/system that is used to judge women on social media?



How similar is the treatment of women in reality and in the cyber world?



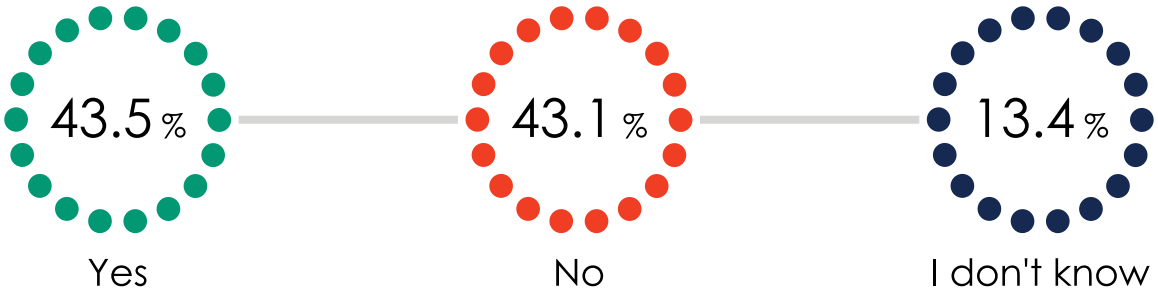
Do you think that women in political positions face more bullying than men on social media?



Do you think cyber-bullying affects women's achievement level in the political world?

Do you think cyber-bullying affects women's political ambitions?

Can gender equality be achieved on social media?



Hayat Center - RASED

Tel: +962 6 582 6868
Fax: +962 6 582 6867
www.hayatcenter.org
info@hayatcenter.org
Facebook: rased.jordan
Twitter: @Rased_Jo
LinkedIn: Hayat-Rased
Instagram: Rased_Jo